Pueblo of Isleta Johnson-O’Malley Program

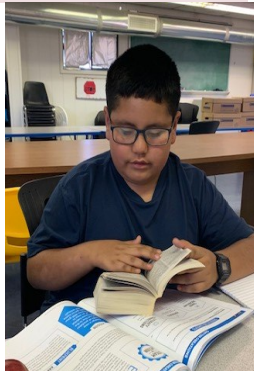

Welcome to the Pueblo of Isleta Johnson-O’Malley Program! The JOM Program is federally funded with the mission of meeting the unique and specialized educational needs of Native American students enrolled in public schools.

The Pueblo of Isleta JOM Program serves all Native American students in grades K—12th that are enrolled in the Los Lunas Public School District and only Isleta students enrolled in Albuquerque Public Schools, Isleta Elementary School, Santa Fe Indian School and School of Dreams Academy. Eligible students receive free educational support through our program. There is no out-of-pocket expense for the family or the student to receive services.

What is JOM?

- The JOM Program allows for the creation and implementation of various educational support programs and services to assist your student through school.
- The Pueblo of Isleta submits an annual contract proposal to the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) every year by October 1.
- The JOM program is the only Federal Program that emphasizes the importance of parent involvement. The Contract Proposal is created based on results from the Annual Needs Assessment.
- The JOM Program's operational budget is funded through the President's Annual budget or a continuing resolution. This year the JOM Program received $52,432.
- Our contract year begins January 1 and ends December 31.

Who is eligible?

Native American Students enrolled in the Los Lunas Public Schools and Isleta Students enrolled in Albuquerque Public Schools, Isleta Elementary School, Santa Fe Indian School, and School of Dreams Academy. Students must be 1/4 or more Native American blood or be a member of a federally recognized Tribe. Students must have a Certificate of Indian Blood (CIB) on file.

How do I get more information about JOM?

To obtain more information about JOM here are a few options:

- Attend JOM Parent Meetings
- Call or stop by the JOM Office located in the Education Complex.
- Ask to be added to the emailing list
